

2006-2007 Q&A Topics for NHS & NJHS Advisers

September:

1. What does the NHS & NJHS National Council do at its annual meeting?

October:

1. Should our chapter translate our forms for the non-English speakers enrolled in our school?
2. How should deadlines be referenced in our published selection process description?
3. Can we charge dues to our members?

November:

1. What should be included on our chapter Web site?
2. How should we select the nominees for the NHS Scholarship?

December:

1. How should we select our chapter officers?
2. How can I obtain an electronic version of the Honor Society logo?
3. Can substitute teachers and teacher aides be considered for membership on the Faculty Council?

January:

1. How should we conduct the mid-year review of our chapter members?
2. What types of appeals procedures does our chapter need to provide to students?

February:

1. What are some elements in the new handbooks that will help me conduct my spring selection and induction?

March:

1. What suggestions can you provide for adding teacher recommendations to our selection process?

April:

1. What direction can advisers provide to members of the Faculty Council regarding the importance of confidentiality regarding their Honor Society responsibilities?
2. What suggestions can you make for creating a behavioral contract for an officer who is having problems fulfilling all of her responsibilities?

May:

1. What advice can you offer to new advisers for taking on the responsibilities of being a chapter adviser for NHS or NJHS?

Total Questions: 16

Questions and Answers are written by the staff at the national office and published monthly in the NHS & NJHS version of Leadership for Student Activities magazine, the official publication of the Student Activities office of NASSP. Ideas for future Q&A's can be emailed to the national office at nhs@nhs.us.